

QuisLex:
Giving back to our communities

Since our founding in 2004, QuisLex has made it part of its mission to give back to our communities. We recognize the importance, value, and benefits of corporate citizenship and actively engaging with and supporting the communities we serve.

2017 was no exception. QuisLex employees devoted thousands of hours to two of our most cherished endeavors: a Hyderabad-based orphanage housing at-risk girls, and the QuisLex Primary School. We also continue to launch new initiatives related to education, health and nutritional awareness in underprivileged communities in India. We support organizations in the United States that serve disadvantaged groups, with a focus on those that seek to protect the rights of the most vulnerable and underrepresented in society.

Our charitable work continues to be an essential part of who we are as a company, and as CEO, I am proud of the work QuisLex and our employees undertake to help those who are less fortunate and underserved. While we receive a number of awards and recognition for the work we do for our clients, our charitable contributions rank as one of our greatest successes and we are honored to be able to give back to our communities.

Ram Vasudevan,
Chief Executive Officer

QuisLex's Social Responsibility Program is aimed at:

1. promoting education, especially among children, women, the elderly, and the differently abled
2. eradicating hunger, poverty and malnutrition through promotion of health care, particularly preventive care and hygiene instruction for children
3. increasing access to clean drinking water in India
4. supporting gender equality and empowering women, including:
 - a. establishing and supporting homes and hostels for women and orphans
 - b. establishing old age homes, day care centers, and other facilities for senior citizens
 - c. implementing measures to address the inequalities faced by socially and economically disadvantaged groups
5. ensuring environmental sustainability and ecological balance, through programs aimed at protection of flora and fauna, animal welfare, agro forestry, conservation of natural resources, and maintaining the quality of soil, air, and water

We are especially proud of the QuisLex Primary School, which we adopted in 2010:

In addition to funding teachers' salaries and providing computers, notebooks, textbooks, and other necessary materials, we:

- a. have established a library and continually provide children's books in English, Telugu and Hindi
- b. have recently built a playground and created landscaped gardens on the grounds
- c. helped rebuild toilets and washrooms
- b. facilitate vocational skills training
- c. raise funding for the self-employment of women
- d. increase awareness in nutrition and health

QuisLex employees frequently spend time at the school instructing children in the use of technology, as well as teaching English and other core skills necessary to their future success.

Additional key CSR initiatives in India include:

1. supporting a Hyderabad-based orphanage housing at-risk girls since 2006, providing food, primary health care, volunteer teachers, computers, and planned activities. QuisLex employees volunteer time with children as well as donate clothes and food
2. funding education, health and nutritional awareness programs in underprivileged communities.
3. contributing to disaster relief efforts, such as donating food and other essentials in response to the devastation wrought by Cyclone Hudhud
4. participating in AIDS awareness education
5. participating in Annual Blood Donation Drives
6. planting thousands of saplings during "go green" initiatives and at our adopted school on World Environment Day

QuisLex has established a charitable trust for the continued support of all of these efforts.

Charitable activities in the US:

QuisLex is proud to support a diverse array of charitable organizations in the United States that support their communities through the provision of legal and other services.

Organizations that QuisLex supports include:

The International Institute for Conflict Prevention & Resolution (CPR)

Founded in 1979, The International Institute for Conflict Prevention & Resolution (CPR) is an independent nonprofit organization that has helped global businesses prevent and resolve commercial disputes. Membership consists of top corporations and law firms, academic and government institutions, and leading mediators and arbitrators around the world.

Law Foundation of Silicon Valley

The Law Foundation of Silicon Valley advances the rights of under-represented individuals and families in our diverse community through legal services, strategic advocacy, and educational outreach.

Make Room for Debate (Chicago Debate Commission Annual Luncheon)

The CDC advocates for and helps establish debate programs in Chicago Public Schools, works closely with CPS to manage and promote the program, generates community support for debate through outreach to individuals, corporations, foundations, and public officials, and raises substantial private funding to support debate for Chicago students.

SABANY (The South Asian Bar Association of New York)

Founded in 1996, the South Asian Bar Association of New York (SABANY) is an organization of South Asian attorneys practicing in the New York City metropolitan region. SABANY is dedicated to the needs, concerns, and interests of lawyers of South Asian heritage. We are committed to promoting the professional development of the South Asian legal community through networking, advocacy, and mentoring. Each year we host panels, CLE courses, and workshops on career development, social justice issues, and current events. We also organize networking events, a Public Interest Fellowship Benefit, and a Leadership Awards Gala. SABANY is dedicated to ensuring the civil liberties of the South Asian community in New York, by acting as a conduit between the South Asian community and legal services and educational programs in the area. It is our goal to educate South Asian Americans about their legal system and to encourage more participation by our community in the legal profession.

Urban Justice Center

For 30 years, the Urban Justice Center has served New York City's most vulnerable residents through a combination of direct legal service, systemic advocacy, community education and political organizing. We assist our clients on numerous levels, from one-on-one legal advice in soup kitchens, to helping individuals access housing and government assistance, to filing class action lawsuits to bring about systemic change.

SIFMA Foundation

The SIFMA Foundation is dedicated to fostering knowledge and understanding of the financial markets for individuals of all backgrounds.

American Folk Art Museum

The American Folk Art Museum is the premier institution devoted to the creative expressions of self-taught artists, past and present.

Since 1961 the American Folk Art Museum has been shaping the understanding of art by the self-taught through its exhibitions, publications, and educational programs. As a center of scholarship and by showcasing the creativity of individuals whose singular talents have been refined through experience rather than formal artistic training, the museum considers the historical, social, and artistic context of American culture. Its collection includes more than seven thousand artworks dating from the eighteenth century to the present, from compelling portraits and dazzling quilts to powerful works by living self-taught artists in a variety of mediums.

Day One

Day One partners with youth to end dating abuse and domestic violence through community education, supportive services, legal advocacy and leadership development.

Day One uses an empowerment model that invests and involves young people in maintaining safe relationships for themselves and their peers.
